HORRON BEATS GOOD ONES

THREE-YEAR-OLD IN AMOS TURNEY'S STABLE SHOWING HIGH-CLASS FORM AT PIMLICO.

Son of McGee Wins Belvedere Handicap from Cock o' the Walk and Priscillian—Society Folk Out in Force to See Gentlemen Riders.

Baltimore, Md., May 12.—Amos Turney's McGee colt Horron showed his heels to a band of high-class sprinters at Pimlico this afternoon when he won the Belvedere Handicap, the feature race of the program provided by the Maryland Jockey Club. Horron was ridden by C. Turner, came from behind and beat Cock o' the Walk a head in a driving finish. There were some shifty horses behind Horron, among them Priscillian, the pride of the Belmont stable, a horse that was beaten only once in 1911 and 1912. Priscillian was unfortunate in that Butwell dropped him into a pocket in the early part of the race and whenever he made a move he was blocked.

The Elk Ridge Steeplechase, for hunters, over the two miles and a half course, attracted the society folk to Pimlico this afternoon and the clubhouse balconies and boxes were filled with enthusiastic devotees of cross country sport. The race furnished a good contest. Chanticleer II. and Golden raced like a team to the fourteenth fence, where the former went down. Two Saints then made a bold effort and, for a furlong, showed in advance of Golden, only to be passed in the last sixteenth. Golden drew away at the finish to win by a couple of lengths. Tommy Wright had a nasty looking fall when Chanticleer II. went down, but fortunately escaped with a few bruises.

Lohengrin showed a smart performance in the third, a dash of one mile for maidens. He led from the start and, running well in hand all the way, galloped home an easy winner over Judge Walser.

Jockey A. Matthews was suspended for two days by the stewards for rough riding in the first race.

The condition books for the first two days of the Electric Park meeting were distributed among the horsemen this afternoon. Many of the minor stables racing here will remain for this meeting before shipping to Canada. J. H. McCarren, R. I. Miller and E. McBride are among the owners who have so decided.

Ed Vivell, formerly connected with Chambers & Walker, but now an extensive pineapple planter on the Island of Porto Rico, was a visitor at Pimlico this afternoon. He will remain until the close of the meeting, when he will leave for Montreal.

George Miller has been engaged to do the starting at Electric Park.

James Rowe was a visitor at Pimlico yesterday. He has arranged to ship the division of the Harry Payne Whitney stable that will be raced on the metropolitan tracks from the Brookdale Farm to Belmont Park on Thursday next.

The Bedwell stable was increased this morning by the arrival of several horses that were left over at Havre de Grace to be freshened.

A carload of horses went from Pimlico to Belmont Park on Saturday. The consignment included W. P. Austin's Mindinette, Walter Scott; Real Star and Thrifty, also a couple of two-year-olds owned by R. T. Wilson.

W. Eggleston has purchased New Star from J. L. Bryan and will make an effort to develop him into a steeplechaser. He will be shipped to Belmont Park from here.

G. Fred Alpers, the well-known gentleman rider, came over from New York to ride Joseph E. Davis' Golden in the Elk Ridge Steeplechase this afternoon. He will also have the mounts on O Bear, Himation and Sir Giles when those horses start during the meeting to be given at Benning during the latter part of the month.

The Idol, winner of the second race, was bid up $400 over his entered price of $400 by Albert Simons and was bought in for Ral Parr.

T. H. RYAN SADDLES A WINNER.

Spokane, Wash, May 12.—Favorites nearly swept the card at Alan this afternoon and the layers suffered the heaviest losses of the meeting.

Thomas H. Ryan, an Illinois turfman, who, at one time, was considered one of the shrewdest horsemen in the country, put over a "good thing" when his three-year-old filly Eagle Wing won the second race. It was the second time that she had faced the barrier, her initial start having been at Juarez, where she finished second. Her dam, True Wing, was the medium of many a coup by Mr. Ryan during the palmy days of racing in the west.

The Canadians scored on Dorbie, which, in her first start here a few days ago, had been beaten by a narrow margin. Today she was confidently backed against better horses and, gamely standing a long drive, she got up in the last stride. Dutch Rock and Hadad figured in a hard struggle during the last eighth of the mile race. McEwen outrode Molesworth in the final fifty yards and landed his mount the winner by the nod.

John Corley, of San Francisco, is the latest arrival from that point.

BUILDING NEW TRACK AT MONTREAL.

Montreal, Que., May 12.—Seventy-five men and thirty teams are working hard at the new Dorval race track. It is a busy spot just now and every effort is being made to rush the work. Sheridan Clark is in charge of construction.

The soil on which the new track is being built is easy to work, consisting of soft sandy loam with clay bottom.

The ground is comparatively level and little cutting or filling is needed. An abundance of magnificent trees gives promise that the place will look pleasing when the work has been finished.

The grand stand is situated close to the C. P. R. line at the east end of the property and will be easy of access. The lawn will be banked so that everyone can view the racing, and this is so nearly completed that the stand construction can be commenced within a week. The ditches have all been dug and about one-third of the track itself has been graded.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

H. McC., Chicago. The Latonia meeting will begin June 9 and terminate July 5.

J. G., St. Thomas, Ont. The place parlay won on the two horses that ran second, being void on the horse that was "out" for place.

W. B. and M. S. J., Nashville, Tenn. There is no good ground for any disagreement. Barbara Lane won at $10.65 to 1 and the price of Yankee Notions was 1 to 10. The parlay figures $11.80 to 1 and should be paid at that rate.

OUTRAM WINS ANOTHER GOOD RACE.

London, Eng., May 12.—At the Hurst Park Whitsuntide meeting today, the Holiday Handicap of 500 sovereigns for three-year-olds and upward at a mile, was won by P. Nelke's four-year-old bay colt Outram, by Delhi—Gingham, with W. R. Wyndham's five-year-old bay horse, Matelot, by Waterboy—French second and G. A. Prentice's five-year-old bay horse Short Grass, by Laveno—Outburst third.

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR SARATOGA MEETING.

Work of Preparing Course at Spa for August Racing Proceeding Satisfactorily.

New York, May 12.—A. McL. Earlocker, assistant secretary of the Saratoga Association for the Improvement of the Breed of Horses, who has been at Saratoga for a few days arranging for the re-opening of the track during the month of August, returned yesterday.

"The Saratoga race course and racing will be restored to exactly the same conditions that existed when racing was discontinued in 1910," he said. "The track and grounds are being placed in first-class condition and visitors will find it little different from what it was when racing ceased."

Mr. Earlocker went on to say:

"The race meeting will be conducted strictly within the law and the authorities need not fear that there will be bookmaking. The statement made recently by August Belmont reflects the sentiments of the Saratoga Association.

"The Scudder decision which has been affirmed by the Appellate Division will be the guide by which the races will be conducted and it is the intention of the association to live up to the letter of this interpretation.

"Entries are coming in satisfactorily and the indications are that there will be plenty of horses for the meeting. This is based on the number of applications for stalls at the track, which are already numerous. As there is to be racing every day during August we will need more horses than the New York tracks and we are sure that they will be on hand when the meeting opens."

Richard T. Wilson, president of the association, and Andrew Miller, the secretary, will visit Saratoga about June 15.

Subscriptions have already been received for the Saratoga Special, $1,000 and plate of $500 added, for two-year-olds, from R. T. Wilson, E. F. Cooney, Oak Ridge Stable, E. R. Bradley, Capt. E. B. Cassatt and J. L. Holland.

RICH STAKE RACES IN URUGUAY.

On January 5th and 6th the Gran Premio International of $15,000 to the winner, and the Premio Buenos Aires of $7,500 to the winner, were decided at Monte Video, when in addition close upon $20,000 was distributed among the owners of other successful animals, which included offspring of Cicero, Forfarshire, Chaucer and Pride. The two big races were won by sons of Pietermaritzburg. The "International" fell to Amsterdam, ch. h. 5, by Pietermaritzburg—Hays, by Kendal. Hirondelle, which carried off the Premio Buenos Aires, is a bay colt, 4, by Pietermaritzburg—Espoir, by Gay Hermit. Both were bred at the famous Haras "Ojo de Agua," in Argentina.

RECORD PRICE FOR A THOROUGHBRED.

Edmund Blanc Reported to Have Paid $208,000 for The White Knight.

It is reported from both English and French sources of information that M. Edmond Blanc has bought The White Knight from W. R. Wyndham for the huge price of 40,000 guineas, the equivalent of $208,000 in our money. Some years back M. Blanc paid $189,500 for Flying Fox at public auction, which, until this later transaction, was the greatest sum ever paid for a thoroughbred. To secure a successor to the dead Flying Fox he has now set a new price record in paying this extraordinary sum for one of the greatest stayers of modern English turf history. For the last two years Edmond Blanc has been breeding his best mares to the American horse Hermis and eventually some comparison of the merits of the progeny of the great horses will naturally be made through the practical test of racing. It was a common rumor in England two weeks back that the Russion government was negotiating for the purchase of The White Knight and it was probably true, but Edmond Blanc's greater offer secured the prize.

SUES BRIGHTON BEACH ASSOCIATION.

New York, May 12.—A suit by the Jockey Club against the Brighton Beach Racing Association to recover $29,033 on a demand note executed in 1910 came to light in the Supreme Court when Justice Pendleton denied a motion by the defendant to vacate the service of papers on Warren L. Neu as treasurer of the association.

Victor W. Cutting, counsel for the Jockey Club, said that after the papers had been served on William A. Engeman, president of the Brighton Beach Association, Engeman pleaded that the action be not pressed because he was trying to arrange for the payment of the Brighton Beach club's indebtedness. He failed to make payment and the papers were served on Neu. Four days afterward Engeman told Lawyer Cutting, it is alleged, that unless the papers were withdrawn he would advise the club's other creditors of the action "and the association will be thrown into bankruptcy and result in wiping out the equity of the Brighton Beach Association and incidentally wiping out myself."

The defendant asked to have the service of papers on Neu vacated on the ground that he had resigned as treasurer two days before the papers were served, but the process server said that Neu told him afteward that he believed his resignation had been accepted because the papers had been served on him, and for no other reason.

THE KAISER A FRIEND OF RACING.

From time to time reports are circulated respecting the slight interest taken in the turf by the German emperor. There is no foundation for such statements, and the Emperor, who has taken the keenest interest in the Royal Graditz Stud, has personally followed the creation of the new race course and stadium in the Grunewald. This fashionable but recent fixture was recently honored with the visit of the Crown Prince and Princess, who came specially from Dantzig to Berlin to see Moose and Sea King run in the Paderborn Stakes. Moose is the property of the Prince, and he owns a half share in Sea King. Moose won the race, and the Prince, with his consort (who were received by his Excellency Count Lehndorff and M. U. von Oertzen), left the course to return to Dantzig delighted with their visit to Grunewald.—London Sportsman.

SCHORR HORSES IN FORM

HAMILTON SCORES EASY VICTORY IN OVERNIGHT HANDICAP AT CHURCHILL DOWNS.

Rolling Stone Favorite for the Race, Has Bad Racing Luck—Lady Lightning Only Winning Favorite—Patronage of Pleasing Proportions.

Louisville, Ky., May 12.—A remarkably large crowd, considering that it was the day after the running of the Derby, gathered at Churchill Downs this afternoon. Interest in the sport was just as keen as on the opening day and speculation was also considerably in excess of the showing for the second day of last spring's meeting. The favorites failed, with the exception of Lady Lightning, in the opener. The biggest surprise developed in the second race, when J. N. Camden's first-time starter, Casuarina, scored over the reputed crack, Harry L., owned by George J. Long. Another jolt was caused in the closing dash by Just Red's triumph over the well-backed Melton Street. The finishes in most of the races were close. The big fields occasioned considerable unavoidable interference during various parts of the running.

The H. C. Hallenbeck establishment furnished two of the beaten choices in Hobnob and Rolling Stone. The last-named was in with a good band in the feature race, a handicap at one mile and seventy yards. His poor showing was in the main due to rough treatment that he experienced in the first half mile. In going around the first turn, he was almost thrown and later he was pocketed. He got clear in the last quarter, but J. W. Schorr's Hamilton, which had assumed a long lead soon after the start, had plenty in reserve and won with ease.

Hobnob showed disinclination to stay, for he quit badly when overtaken by Floral Park, the ultimate winner.

Most of the eastern delegation that came expressly to witness the Derby departed yesterday and today. Mr. Belmont was immensely pleased with the way racing is conducted here and, in expressing his pleasure, declared that he would be represented next year in the Derby and would strive to carry off the laurels. Messrs. Knapp, Dwyer, Hitchcock, Miller, Sanford and others in the party stated before their departure that they would make every effort to return here some time next week. All were much taken with the racing and the immense turnout that viewed the Derby.

All the starters in the Derby except Lord Marshall came out of the race in good shape and this morning took light exercise. Ten Point and Yankee Notions are stabled at Douglas Park. Lord Marshall came out of the race with a badly split hoof and probably will not go to the post again for a considerable time.

Jockey McCabe was suspended for five days by the stewards after the first race for allowing Lady Lightning to bore over during the stretch racing. The stewards aim to free the racing here of any semblance of rough riding and will severely punish offenders.

Trainer J. O. Keene stated today that the good colt Imperator would remain at Lexington until the last of this week, when he will join the Camden horses that are being campaigned here. Trainer Keene neglected a good opportunity for an extensive winning, when he backed Harry L. in the second race and permitted his own representative, Casuarina, to start unbacked.

George W. Langdon, who is handling the J. W. Messervy horses, stated today that His Majesty is rapidly rounding into racing condition and that he probably will be a starter before long.

There are close to four hundred two-year-olds at the two local tracks.

Starter Cassidy's work with the barrier this afternoon was especially meritorious. Some of the starters were fractious and caused delay.

Harry L., which started in the second race, has worked preliminary trials sufficiently good enough to cause many owners to pronounce him the best colt in Kentucky. He was forced to go wide in his race today and weakened a trifle near the end. He will improve with racing. He is a brother to Rudolfo and a grand looker.

The Saratoga stakes filled exceptionally well, according to Mr. Berlin, who has been looking after the interests of the Saratoga Association here. "Nearly every horseman at the track made entries and the Saratoga management will be agreeably surprised by the liberal response of western horsemen," said Mr. Berlin.

H. C. Hallenbeck has wired Frank Taylor that he expects to reach the Downs by next Saturday to see Adams Express and Rolling Stone run in the Clark Handicap, which is the preliminary trial for the $15,000 Kentucky Handicap. Mr. Hallenbeck will endeavor to remain in Louisville until the local racing season ends.

Sir Catesby, a half-brother to Donerail, still winning races for Dan Lehan, was trained for the Kentucky Derby of 1909 by T. P. Hayes. Sir Catesby is by Sir Dixon and was the first foal of Donerail's dam, Algie M. Johnetta, the grandam of Donerail, was raced by the Texas turfman, J. M. Brown, who lost his life in the Garfield Park raid in 1892. She was a fairly good racer.

Trainer Art Newman regrets to announce that his good filly, Pan Zareta, is out of the Kentucky Oaks, the feature of the final day, May 24, at the Downs. Pan Zareta did not do well after arriving at Lexington following a long delay at Washington, Ind., on account of flood conditions. Subsequently she developed the ailment from which The Manager and Hawthorn suffered. She has about recovered, but she has lost so much flesh that Newman has abandoned the idea of making an effort to race her before late in the summer. It is doubtful if he will send her to the post at Latonia. Pan Zareta was a star at Juarez last winter. It is unfortunate that she can not measure strides in Kentucky with such fillies as Gowell, The Widow Moon, Floral Park and Christmas Star.

J. C. Milam is at the Downs with his horses, several of which he did not race at Lexington. This is unusual, as he is generally ready at the first bugle call. Howard Oots is also here with his band.

Jockey Pickett is endeavoring to reduce in order that he may ride at the Downs.

Speculation is keen among turfmen as to how the Kentucky Derby winner, Donerail, will race in the Latonia Derby, one mile and a half, in which it will be necessary for him to concede five pounds to such three-year-olds as Ten Point, Foundation, Gowell, Hawthorn, His Majesty, Frederick L., Solar Star, Christmas Star and Great Britain. The weights for the Latonia Derby provide 122 for colts, which will give Donerail an impost of 127 pounds. Last season Free Lance won the race carrying 114 pounds, with the Kentucky Derby winner, Worth, 127, in third place. Four winners of the Kentucky Derby have won the Latonia Derby with a penalty, they being Halma, Lieutenant Gibson, Elwood and Sir Huon. Lieutenant Gibson walked over. Kingman, another winner of the Kentucky Derby, won the Latonia Derby with 128 pounds up.

Jockey Loftus declares that but for interference to which Foundation was subjected by Ten Point in the final furlong, his mount would have beaten the favorite for second money in the Kentucky Derby.

TRAINING GALLOPS AT WOODBINE.

Toronto, Ont., May 10.—The Seagram horses were worked at Woodbine yesterday. The King's Platers were sent a mile for the first time at anything like top speed, and Voivode showed up the best of the trio. He worked alone, one quarter in :25⅖, three-eighths in :36⅘, one-half in :49⅕, three-quarters in 1:16⅗, and the mile in 1:47. It was a creditable effort and he went well within himself. Maid of Frome and Battle Song went together, one-quarter in :24⅘, three-eighths in :37, one-half in :49⅘, five-eighths in 1:03⅗, three-quarters in 1:17⅗, and reached the mile in 1:47⅗. Battle Song was beaten off eight lengths at the end. This work shows that the Waterloo stable cannot be entirely overlooked as serious contenders for the Guineas.

Trainer Littlefield also sent At Once and Rustling together a mile in 1:46⅗. The two-year-olds, Froissart and Extravagant, breezed three-eighths in :37⅖. Sea Lord, Meissen and Dark Rossaleen went three-eighths in 37⅕.

William Walker sent Colston three-quarters in 1:18⅗ and Dynamite three-quarters in 1:19.

First Aid and Cobourg Boy went a half in :53⅗. Curious and Detroit went the same distance in :52⅕. Carrillon and Britain's Aid showed an easy five furlongs in 1:07.

Caper Sauce, Sol. Mitz' old campaigner, has not lost any of his speed, as was shown when he breezed from the three-eighths post to the stand in :37 seconds.

True Step did the fastest work of the morning when she went three-eighths in :36⅖.

Trainer Meagher gave Havrock and Black River five-eighths together in 1:06. H. Warner's Letourno breezed one-quarter in :27. Golden Gleam put in three-eighths in :37. She is a promising filly.

The barrier was up at the six-furlongs chute and several two-year-olds were schooled for the first time.

The latest acquisition to the stable of Barney Cole is Joe Gaiety, owned by J. W. Hammond of Hamilton. It is the intention to make a steeplechaser of him.

Other arrivals from Hamilton were: Harry McDonald with Cohort; Bert McDonald with Sir Melvin, a Plater, The African and Dorothy Webb. Sir Melvin will not be a starter in the big race. The African and Dorothy Webb have been schooled over the jumps and will be raced through the field this season for the first time. Both are promising fencers.

A nipping gale from the north, which whipped the Woodbine track into flurries of sand, interfered with training today. Hearts of Oak, the King's Plate favorite, was galloped a fairly hard mile and cantered out a mile and an eighth. Some of the morning works were:

Alibas—Half mile in 50⅘.
Bee Hive—Half mile in 50⅘.
Halflaw—Half mile in 57.
Ironical—Three-quarters in 1:23⅗.
Joe Gaiety—Half mile in 53.
Lilburne—Mile in 1:57⅖.
Slipper Day and Martola—Half mile in 57.

Charlie Crew's Ta Nun Da and Sir Melvin went away together, but a half in 50⅗ found Sir Melvin three lengths behind and faltering.

Marybud led Gorman's Plater, Aurora Raby, three-quarters in 1:19⅗, with Calumny beaten off. Aurora Raby was a length and a half behind Marybud. The fractional time: 24, 37, 50⅖, 1:19⅗.

Billy Breen worked a half in :49, with Tom Bird in close pursuit.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

C. Peak is to become leading rider for the Schorr stable.

Steeplechase jockey Pemberton has recovered from an attack of pneumonia and will ride in Canada this season as a free lance.

T. P. Hayes had a $25 commission at 100 to 1 on Donerail in the future books on the Kentucky Derby. Jockey Goose's fee for winning the race was $500.

Saturday's attendance at Churchill Downs broke all records for the course and the $272,771 wagered in the machines represented a record for the pari-mutuels in Kentucky.

"After seeing Donerail lead his opposition home, I feel satisfied that Hawthorn would have won easily," was C. F. Buschemeyer's comment on the running of the Kentucky Derby.

The total of the money wagered in the mutuels at Pimlico Saturday was $131,971, which would give the Maryland Jockey Club about twice as much revenue as from the bookmakers.

A. L. Aste, owner of Ten Point, will remain at Louisville until after the meetings at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park are over. He will then ship to Canada and later to Saratoga.

Bourbon Beau has arrived at W. S. Payne's Mapleton Stock Farm, near Lexington, Ky., and will be ready for stud duty next season. Bourbon Beau is still the property of T. Collins of New York.

Captain James H. Rees of Memphis cut short a business engagement in Pittsburgh in order to see the Kentucky Derby run at Churchill Downs on Saturday. He said there was genuine regret in his city that Hawthorn was unable to go in the race.

T. C. McDowell left The Manager at the Lexington track, where he will remain until he gets well enough to be moved to Ashland Farm to rest until fall, when he will be put back in training with a view to the winning of some of the fall handicaps.

J. T. Weaver, owner of Gowell, thinks his filly would have won the Kentucky Derby had jockey McCabe not been forced to pull her up on the backstretch. He predicts that if she meets these same horses in the Latonia Derby she will beat them all.

Tim O'Leary of Philadelphia, who is interested in the Havre de Grace track, was a spectator at Churchill Downs on Derby Day. He is not in favor of the mutuel style of betting and was largely instrumental in having it sidetracked at the Havre de Grace course.

LET ME SHOW YOU

at Pimlico on Saturday, May 17, what real information can come from the right source. I'm here clocking for eastern interests—who make it their business to know what every horse outside of their own can do. I cover the field for them. I want 100 people to enjoy my knowledge. I want to deal with honest people on the outside. Saturday I will give you the first chance—to get in on something you couldn't buy with money—just 100 honest people can have Saturday's sleeper free, as a test, then, if you treat me right, I will include you on the next, Tuesday, May 20. Pay after the race, after you win. Address me at once by letter, no postal cards.
